

From campus to career. Explore every opportunity.

Paid 12-Month Logistics-Operations Internship in Houston

For talented graduates with a passion for building real-world supply chains and a desire to gain hands-on experience in the US logistics. This is a full-service placement for a paid J-1 internship, professionally managed by Marcellus Bartsch.

The Offer

- Compensation: $2,000 per month.
- Location: Houston, TX, USA.
- Duration: 12 months.
- Visa Support: Full J-1 application management provided

The Ideal Candidate

- Student or recent graduate in Business, Supply Chain, Information Systems, or a related quantitative field.
- Strong proficiency in Excel and SQL is required.
- Excellent data analytics and problem-solving skills.
- Strong communication skills and a process-oriented mindset.
- Proactive, with strong leadership potential and excellent time management skills.

The Opportunity

- Work within a leading nationwide logistics company in Houston, TX.
- Oversee key supply chain processes, data analytics, and quality control standards.
- Develop and report on Key Performance Metrics (KPIs) to drive process improvement.
- Collaborate directly with dispatchers, engineers, and operations personnel.
- Gain significant impact on cost control through analysis and implementation of logistics strategies.

Apply now

Send your CV or GitHub/Linkedin profile to:

contact@marcellusbartsch.de

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

